

1st National Reflection Day on Laudato Sí

Caring Together for our Common Home

Saturday 29th September, Renehan Hall, Maynooth

10am – 4.30pm

- 10am Teas and Coffees, Registration
- 10.30am Welcome, Prayer, Introduction to the day
- 10.45am Introduction to Laudato Sí and global response
- 11.15am Short Break
- 11.30am Panel Discussion: The “Lines of Approach” in Laudato Sí
- Political Context and Response – Climate Action Dialogue, Energy transition
 - Climate justice and citizen action
- Theology, Spirituality and Prayer
- Ecological Education
- 12.30 Guided Walk in Garden of Creation
- 1pm Light Lunch in Pugin Hall
- 1.45PM Celebrating the “Our Common Home” Project at WMOF
- 2.45pm Panel Discussion: Greening the Church through Pastoral Action on Laudato Si – Jane Mellett to Chair
- Faith Communities: Actions to help pollinators
 - Eco-Dioceses
 - Becoming an Eco-parishes
 - Availing of Resources – Season of Creation, LS Pledge and Laudato Sí Animators Programme
- 4pm Our Shared Aspirations for Laudato Sí in Ireland.
- Cardinal Tagle speech – In the Our Common Home Garden....!
- 4.30pm Ends (for those who have to leave).
- Teas and Coffees for those who can stay.*

Trócaire

SEASON OF
CREATION